"PINK" HAWLEY.

The Famous Pitcher of the St. Louis Basebull Club.

Among the prominent young pitchers of the country is E. P. Hawley, better known as "Pink." He was born at Beaver Dam, Wis., in 1872. There was a twin brother, and us an early age the two began to play ball as pitcher and ratcher. The twin brothers soon made a widespread reputation. In 1800 and 1801 the boys played with several Wisconsin teams and were widely known as "Pink and Illne," the pony battare. It was a common occurrence for from Aftern to twenty-four men to strike out on druggist keep it.

"Pink's" pitching, and many opposing teams were retired without a bit. In June, 1891, "Blue" died with preumonia, and this broke up a battery which promised to beome famous in a national sense.
"Pink" Hawley is 5 ft, 10 in tall and weighs 180 pounds, though not yet twenty years old. Last March Anson took him south on the Chlongo's practice tour. While in the south he accepted terms from the Fort Smith club, The club by his pitching won the state championship of Ar-kanssa. Perhaps the most remarkable game of his career be pitched for that team against their rivals—the Van Burens at Morrillion, in which he struck out twentytwo men. The St. Louis management secured his services hast July, and he has since then done good work for the Browns. Hawley has remarkable speed, swift curves and is besides cool headed. His best work with St. Louis has been against the Bostons and Cincinnatis, each of which he held down to three scattered hits.

When the twins were small the nurse tied blue and pink ribbon on them respectively, a la Girofle Girofla, in order to distingwish one from the other. Hence their names- Pink" and "Blue." This resemblance continued to strangers up to the hour of "Elue's" death, and it was a puzzle to decide which was the catcher and which the pitcher when they were not in their positions on the field.

Salvage and Balm. What means this woe on Chappie's face!
Is he in dread of some digrace?
At no, his trunk has just come home
From scenes where Chappie once did roam.
And in its side a fearful gap Shows that it's met with some mishap.

And through that rent two pairs of boots.

Six russet shoes, three bathing suits. A linen vest, six coffars high, A lounging coat, an Oxford tie, A lounging coat, an Oxford tie,
All have escaped, and dire dismay
On Champie's face now holdeth away.
But see, he smiles! What can it be
That's brought this sudden look of glee?
The trunk he's opened and looked in,
And on his lips there spreads a grin.
"There's nothing left," he says. "But stay!
One thing's escaped the foe today.
It might be worse indeed it might.
But this is balla!" Whereon that wight

Needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when needed. The best and most simple and gentle remedy is Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup company.

Venison Steaks and Game. The advance of the game scason always finds Dettenthaler, the fish and game merchant, well supplied in every palateable and delicate morsel that thes or swims. Just now his market front presents an array of venison that suggests many a toothsome repast. Inside, venison steaks are displayed in profusion. The game display c nsists of duck, snipe, plover, quail, wood-cock and partridge. Dettenthaler en-joys special facilities for collecting hese delicacies fresh from their covers every day. The fish supply comprises every food fish known to fresh and sait water. Brook trout, lake trout, salmon, mackerel, lobster, eel, pike, pickerel, bass, perch and whitefish, are always to be found on his counters.

Dettentbaler makes a special drive on oysters in their season. He is agent for the famous Anchor brand, and can supply them in large or small quantities to suit the customer. He enjoys a large wholesale trade in these delicaces. His line of spring chickens and ducks, and all tame fowls, is always full.

Not a Campaign Issue. A good many people seem to have an idea that the presidential campaign s not attracting as much attention as usual. Maybe it isn't, but one thing a certain those new "Granfather's Hat" cakes recently put on the market are proving immensely popular. We are told that the United States Baking company, with their facilities for baking great quantities in a short time, can scarcely supply the demand. And it isn't political sentiment that is making the demand either, for democrats as well as republicans buy them. "Grandfather's Hat" cakes are really delightful dainties and it is no wonder that the people like them. Ask your grocer for them.

A BAKE. The trip is made with the highest degree of comfort in the elegant vestisilroad, which carry dining cars and naurious Pullman sleeping cars from Inicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis to Montana and the Pacific coast, without change, and special Pullman sleepers from St. Paul and Minneapolis to Yelowstone Park.

The scenery en route is the most magn ficent to be found in the seven states through which the road passes. Beautiful mountains, rivers, valleys, takes and plains follow each other in rapid succession to delight the tourists who will also find interest in the agricultural, mining, lumbering, industrial and other interests associated with the development of the great northwest. The crowning glory of the trip through the northwest, however, is the visit to Yellowstone Park, the land of hot springs, geysers and gorgeous can-ons, and to Alaska, with its endless ocean channels, snowcapped peaks, Inlian villages and giant glaciers.
